THE CHARLEROI MAIL

VOLUME XXI—No. 30. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA SATURDAY, JULY 10, 1920. TWO CENTS

WILL ENFORCE REGULATIONS AS TO PUBLIC EATING PLACES

Board of Health Has Made Local Survey and Has Reports on File

THE LAW MUST BE OBEYED

The Chareroi Board of Health has just had returned to it by the Pennsylvania State Health Department the official reports it recently forwarded concerning the condition of the hotels, restaurants and other places where meals are served to the public in this borough.

According to the state regulations it is necessary for the local board of health to make a survey of all such places twice a year, and make a report thereon. This report is somewhat in the form of a questionnaire and goes into all the minute details in connection with operation of public eating places and proprietors of restaurants and hotels have come to realize the fact that the best advertisement they can have for their place of business is the certificate of the Board of Health which sets forth that their establishments have been inspected and found to meet the requirements of the law, thus insuring the health of their patrons.

The act of assembly approveed May 18, 1915, forbids the use of the common drinking cup or towel in any public place of any description. No towel can be used the second time until it has been laundered. Drinking vessels must be washed with soap and water or be disinfected after being used once. The law also requires that all dishes or other receptacles or utensils used in eating or drinking places must be thoroughly washed with soap and hot water or disinfected after use.

In addition to this the law provides that all public places just mentioned must be kept clean and free from waste material or rubbish. It is especially required that the kitchens and refrigerators, dining rooms and all other places where food is exposed be kept clean. All such rooms should be well ventilated. All windows, doors or other openings should be fitted with fly screens, to be used at least from April 15 to November 16; for it has been demonstrated beyond all doubt that flies are the greatest carriers of diesase with which the health authorities have to contend.

The state department of health has started a campaign to bring about a general observance of this law, and all local boards throughout the state have received instructions to enforce its provisions. It is not the intention of the health authorities to prosecute anyone, and, although ignorance of the law excuses no one, it has been decided to give ample warning in every manner possible to the proprietors of such places. Then the law must be obeyed or prosecutions will follow.

The local reports are in possession of Health Officer Darby, where they can be seen by any one interested.

MANY AUTO THEFTS IN FAYETTE COUNTY

Police in Uniontown and Connellsville are becoming concerned over the frequency with which automobile thefts occur. The police stations of the two cities alone have docketed a score of thefts in the past ten days, most of which, however, were closed when the owners reported that their machines had been located on a side street much the worse from hard driving.

SUSPECT HELD IN BANK ROBBERY CASE

Sloan Daugherty of Monongahela, who was taken into custody soon after the arrest of Jack Hogan in connection with the daring robbery of the First National Bank of Finleyville, waived a hearing for court when arraigned before Alderman R. L. Elwood at Monongahela on Thursday. He was returned to jail on Friday, to be held without bail.

Daugherty's arrest in connection with the bank robbery is said to have been the result of certain remarks he made, which indicated that he probably knew something about the crime. He is a well known character in Monongahela and has been in trouble before.

Cashier J. F. Boyer in a statement made on Friday, said that the hunt for the bandits was still on, and says that progress is being made.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT AT AFTERNOON TEA

This afternoon at a tea given at their home, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stephens of 301 Crest avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter Ann to Harold V. Solvsberg, son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Solvsberg of Sioux City, Iowa. Mr. Solvsberg is a Senior at Northwestern University, and Miss Stephents is a Sophomore at the same school.

Railway Company Will Enforce Trespass Act

More than thirty arrests were made at Donora on Thursday by W. S. Pursglove, sergeant of the Pennsylvania railway police, and who had been sent to Donora following the triple tragedy of Wednesday evening when three small boys were killed by a passenger train, for the purpose of enforcing the trespass laws against all persons violating it.

It is the intention of railroad authorities to arrest young and old, and where children are concerned their parents will be held responsible for the fines imposed. It is the purpose of the railroad company to keep the tracks clear of all trespassers from this time on, and it is announced that prosecutions will be brought against any man, woman or child found on the tracks, cars or property of the railway company where not permitted at stations.

Informations were filed Thursday morning before Justice Boyd against a number of Donora residents for trespassing on railroad property, and the campaign will be continued until the practice, which has grown to such large proportions, is practically broken up. From this time on it is the purpose of the railroad company to have an officer stationed near Americo park, just below Donora, where the home league plays ball, to enforce the orders of the company that trespassing be permitted at that point. The plan of campaign will embrace every part of the Monongahela Division, and those walking on the tracks do so at their own risk.

DISTILLERY PROPERTY IS SOLD FOR TAXES

The county treasurer practically completed the sales of properties against which tax liens had been filed when he disposed of certain interests in coal acreage Friday afternoon, in the public meeting room of the court house at Washington. Another property sold was that of the Vandergrift Distilling company in East Bethlehem township. The purchaser of this property is vaguely wondering whether or not he has acquired title to the many hundreds of barrels of liquor reputed to be stored in the warehouse, and over which the government is exercising supervision at the present time.

"VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL" AT THE MAJESTIC

"The Virgin of Stamboul," a Universal-Jewel feature, with Priscilla Dean as the star, is announced for the Majestic theatre, where it will appear two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 13 and 14. This is said to be one of the important photo-productions of the year and it presents the mysterious life of the east, with the custom of theTurks and Arabs in a charascteristic and lifelike manner. Street scenes of Stamboul, "the wickedest city in the East," as well as of the desert are features of the production. Manager Rosenbloom announces there will be no advance in prices to see this great production. This picture is the forerunner of a series of the greatest pictures of the day which Manager Rosenbloom has contracted for, and which will insure the people of Charleroi an opportunity of seeing all the features of moviedown without leaving town.

STILL TABULATING RECENT ROAD BIDS

Bids that were opened by the county commissioners and controller on July 2 for the re-surfacing of the Washington-West Middletown and Finleyville-Library roads are still in process of tabulation by the county engineers, although it is practicaly known whose bids were the lowest.

The contractors who presented the lowest figures, however, have not been able as yet to assure the county commissioners that they can obtain such supplies of materials as will permit them to keep the work proceeding steadily, once they get it under way. They are earnestly looking into the matter and are to report the results of their efforts on Tuesday next.

The commissioners expressed themselves on Friday as being quite eager to have the reconstruction work commenced on both of these roads at the earliest possible moment, yet they realize the futility of letting contracts until here is a certainty that those in charge of the improvements can obtain an unfailing supply of necessary materials. But little if anything will be gained by getting the work under way and have the contractors cease operations because of a shortage of needed supplies. It is hoped that the report of bidders on Tuesday next will be so favorable that a letting of contracts may be justified.

MONESSEN GIVES STREET CAR CO. MUCH WANTED ORDINANCE

Passed at Final Reading at Meeting Held last Wednesday Evening

WILL GIVE BETTER SERVICE

The Monessen borough council, in a regular meeting held Wednesday evening last, took final action on an ordinance which will have quite an effect on the street car situation in that town.

The street car ordinance, which has been before that body for long time, and which has been voted up and down, came on for final action. The greater part of the council session was taken up in discussing the various provisions of the measure, each section being considered separately, as well as the amendments offered, and it was finally passed on third and final reading. The measure now goes to the street car company for its acceptance.

With the passage of this ordinance the traveling public believes it has won a long-drawn out battle for better street car service between Monessen and Charleroi. The street car company will be permitted to make improvements that were contemplated years ago, including a loop at the lower end of Monessen and the elimination of the sharp curve at Eleventh street in that town.

The street car company will have two weeks in which to go over and study the various provisions of the ordinance prior to accepting it, and it is anticipated their action will be favorable. The company for years has been working to obtain certain privileges in Monessen, but which have been denied by the council of that borough. Last spring the Board of Trade of Monessen got behind the proposition believing that the best interests of the community would be served if the street car company was given the privileges asked. Council has now acted and with the acceptance of the ordinance on the part of the street car company theproposed improvements can begin some time this summer. It is promised that will result in greatly increased and improved service between the two towns.

Mrs. Frank Kennoy well known Club, Society and Charitable worker of Pittsburg is going to entertain the young people at Eldora Park every Monday evening, commencing Monday July 12. Mrs. Kennoy is known as Emma Kenney in the musical world as she has written several song hits, also a composer of music each and every Monday night will have a different attraction. Mr. Stokes who is well known in banquet entertaining will furnish the music. Stokes Famous Mendelson Orchestra of seven pieces will be there and Mrs. Kennoy promises every one a good time. 31-t1*

COKING COAL BRINGS A LARGE RETURN

Albert Gaddis, Daniel Sturgeon and W. C. McKean, trustees in bankruptcy of William M. Thompson, have sold 17.35 acres of coal land in Springhill township, Fayette county, to the Jennings Coal and Coke company of Cheat Haven. The consideration was $29,543.89. The deal was completed on Thursday and the deed placed on file the same day.

MILLS HANDICAPPED BY TRANSPORTATION

The Iron Trade Review says a losing battle, by every sign, is being waged by iron and steel producers in their continuing struggle to maintain operations against a grossly deficient transportation service. Centering upon the restricted use of open top cars except for coal shipments, which is to be in force two weeks more, the situation has been growing steadily worse. The resistance of the industry to the slow strangulation is surprising as to tonnage of finished and semi-finished material backed up at the plants of the producers and still mounting, has passed the point of reliable estimation, so large has it become. "Frozen" credits in that form present a passing problem even for the strongest interests. Many plants are kept going mainly by the use of motor trucks.

In many instances business being acepted by some large producers is specifically made subject to piling in mill yards for indefinite future delivery unless the customer furnishes means of carriage. Furthermore, those orders are being made absolutely irrevocable.

Uncertainties of delivery are not deterring steel consumers from ordering out tonnage far ahead against contracts with the mills. Furthermore, production has been closely approximating the best record of these mills before the war.

THE WINNERS

The winner of school and college honors are not necessarily the winners of after years, nor can young men who make a brilliant start in the professions or in business be certainly relied on in every case to keep in the forefront. Precocity in early life is no assurance of great achievement later, for youthful genius too often blazes up and burns out prematurely, and sometimes golden opportunity knocks at the door in professional or business life after a long period of seeming failure or very limited success. The winners in college are well worthy of applause, but we should not be hasty in passing final judgment on students who fail to distinguish themselves or on young men who at first seem to get forward but slowly. Many of the world's greatest men were a long time in really getting into the game, developing slowly and succeeding only after repeatedly disappointing their friends.

For example, Gladstone showed no indications of unusual ability in his youth. Napoleon stood forty-second in his class in his military academy, yet his fame alone has survived Patrick Henry was a lazy boy, uninterested in his studies; he failed both in farming and in business and found himself only after he tried the law and entered politics. Darwin failed utterly in the study of language and his father reproved him for being interested only in dogs and animals, predicting that he would disgrace the family Henry Ward Beecher in youth was a preor writer and speller, and so bashful and reticent that people thought him stupid. And so—such instances being numerous. Sometimes the bigger the man the longer it takes him to find himself.

THE PRICE SHE PAYS

There is hardly an American woman nowadays who can keep pace with the demands made upon her time and energy without paying the penalty of ill-health. It may be that dreadful backache, dragging pains, headaches, nervousness or the tortures of a displacement. It is the price she pays. To women in this condition Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. A simple remedy made from roots and herbs which brings glorious health to suffering women.

WILL INSPECT NEW ROAD MAKING MACHINE

The commissioners of Washington county, on Monday next, will visit some road work being done near Wheeling, W. Va., where there is in operation an improved wagon loader, with caterpilar tread, which is reported to be able to accomplish a vast amount of work at low cost and requiring few helpers. Such a machine could be used to advantage in this county, if it is found to be equal to expectations, as it could be readily moved about and with its help a small force could rapidly repair roads. A machine of this kind propery handled could be utilized in rebuilding many miles of improved roads that are showing signs of wear and tear which can thus be given the attention they require.

The Cheney Orchestral Chambers

An acoustic principle of the resonating chambers of the pipe organ adapted to the reproduction of music in The Cheney.

Vibrant, imparting richness and quality to tones, The Cheney Orchestral Chambers respond to and develop every range of pitch. Tones are held under perfect control and in perfect balance. Protected by basic patents.

The CHENEY

The Master Touch

THE virtuoso finds beauties in a score of music overlooked by those with lesser talent. Under his hand every note is played perfectly—kept in proper relation to the whole.

The Cheney reproduces his music with equal skill. In a series of Orchestral Chambers, high, medium and low tones are developed in volume, sweetened in quality, and given back to the world just as they were played.

It is the highest achievement in the art of musical reproduction, and the period cabinets rival in beauty the masterpiece of the most expert craftsmen in furniture creation.
